EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as follows:

In the specification:

On page 1, before the heading "BACKGROUND OF THE INVENTION", the following sentence has been added:

--This application is a national stage application of PCT/US04/28557 filed September 2, 2004 which claims the benefit of U.S. provisional application No. 60/499,478 filed September 2, 2003.--

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: None of the prior art of record taught or suggested the manufacture of a honeycomb structure from an elongate tubular material which was wrapped on a collector having at least one curved surface with at least one line of slow cure adhesive which will not fully cure for at least one hour thereon whereby the adhesive bonds overlying surfaces of the elongated tubular material to form a curved cellular structure on the collector, cutting the cellular material from the collector prior to fully curing of the adhesive, placing the cellular structure on a flat surface before the adhesive has fully cured and allowing the adhesive to fully cure on the flat surface. The reference to Japanese Patent 9-76378 failed to teach that the tubular material was bonded on adjacent surfaces with the slow cure adhesive prior to removal from the collector (note that the material was allowed to shift after removal from the collector and thus the material was not “bonded”). Additionally, note that Japanese Patent ‘378 does not relate to wrapping a tubular material to form a honeycomb and thus one would not have been motivated to look to the teachings of the reference therein for making the honeycomb of the claimed invention (namely it was used to make a structural honeycomb material and not a shade as taught by the admitted prior art).

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled “Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance.”

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to /Jeff H. Aftergut/ whose telephone number is 571-272-1212. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday-Friday 7:30-4:00 pm.
